

Greenlife Industry Australia Member Benefits

Advocacy and Representation

Greenlife Industry Australia prioritises advocacy for Members on issues of collective importance, focusing on growing demand for the product, reducing costs to business and protecting investments for example, through biosecurity and addressing labour shortages. Advocacy puts the spotlight on the importance of the greenlife industry and strengthens relationships with the federal government, creating real and ongoing value for industry businesses.

We represent members through membership of:

- Plant Health Australia (PHA)
- Voice of Horticulture (VoH)
- National Farmers Federation (NFF)
- Horticulture Council (HC)
- International Association of Horticulture Producers (AIPH)

and 25 organisations, steering committees, councils that can found on our website www.greenlifeindustry.com.au
